

Tai Chi

Rules

- 1) Tai Chi competitors must wear a Chinese uniform without the belt. The use of music and shoes are optional.
- 2) Jewellery (necklaces, bracelets, rings, watches or similar) are strictly forbidden during the competition.
- 3) In the weapons competition, competitors must use traditional weapons with ornaments.
- 4) The competitor has 90 seconds to demonstrate his form. After that time, the Judge may stop the demonstration.
- 5) Teams are permitted a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 5 competitors.
- 6) At the start of the performance, the competitors must greet the Judges as a symbol of respect and martial arts ethics.
- 7) Scoring will be between 6.0 to 8.0, deleting the highest and lowest score. The remaining scores will be added.
- 8) Parameters: coordination, rhythm, martial movements, precision
- 9) If there is a draw, the lowest score and possibly the highest score will be added.